DEMON DEEMING.

He at One Time Served in the India Army.

FINDING OUT HIS HISTORY.

A Few Facts About the Noted Criminal Just Brought to Light—He is Probably Not Jack the Ripper—Various Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, May 12.—In connection with the report that Deeming had served with the army in India, the Bombay Gazette states that the criminal records make mention of a soldier by the name of Charles Williams, who, after undergoing six months' imprisonment in Bombay for a petty robbery at Calaba, in September, 1889, was deported to England as an ex-military convict in March, 1890. Williams, who had served in the Fourth King's Own borders for twelve years, was about to be discharged from the army when he got into trouble, and it had been his intention when he got his discharge, to go to Australia. His conviction, however, led him to change his plans.

It was understood that at the time he was in prison that was not his real name. Whether or not this can be the same man as the Williams alias Deeming, who is charged with the murders in Australia and England, can not be said until more is known about the history and identity of the man in custody. If the Charles Williams who left the Bombay gaol two years ago, is the Melbourne and Liverpool murderer, the charge that these murders were the work of Jack the Ripper is untrue, for the most of the Whitechapel murders were committed while he was serving in India.

Contradictory Reports.

BERLIN, May 12.—The contradictory reports about Emin Pasha are creating much anxiety, and even his most intimate friends begin to fear that, dead or alive, his days of influence are over. A dispatch on Friday last from an Arab source said that he was dead, and in another it is stated that he is totally blind. As the two dispatches are from distinct sources, it is thought that some evil must have befallen Emin. Emin was not in the employ of the German government and therefore no official responsibility is felt for his safety. There is much anxiety however lest harm should have befallen him, as he was considered a good friend of Germany.

Sixty Lives Lost.

VIENNA, May 12.—A great lumber raft carrying one hundred men, women and children who lived on board during the trip down the river, went to pieces on snags near Brody, in Galicia, during a high wind yesterday. All on board were thrown into the river. Sixty were drowned. The rest clung to logs and boards until help reached them from the shore. About forty of the bodies have been recovered and have been laid side by side on the river bank. Scores of men are dragging the river for the other bodies. The raft was defectively constructed and the owners will be prosecuted.

Anarchists Swarming in England.

LONDON, May 12.—The Chronicle's Paris correspondent says: "There are over 700 refugees, anarchists and others of criminal antecedents, under conviction for attacks on life or property, now in the sanctuary of British territory. They could not live elsewhere twenty-four hours. This question must eventually be considered by the powers."

High Handed Measures.

PARIS, May 12.—The pope has instructed the nuncio here to protest against the "high handed measures" of the government in stopping the salaries of the bishops whose pastoral letters were regarded as expressing sentiments subversive to the political institutions of the country.

Still Arresting Anarchists.

LIEGE, May 12.—The Belgian authorities are still actively engaged in arresting anarchists. A man named Ponilla arrested yesterday, is believed to have been the author of the recent explosion. He is also accused of robbery.

Death Resulted.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—General Gresser, the prefect of police of this city, who was poisoned in a mysterious manner, it is supposed by nihilists, died yesterday.

DUEL WITH KNIFE AND RAZOR.

Fatal Results Feared for Both the Participants.

LOUISA, Ky., May 12.—Tuesday at Dalton's store, Fuller's Station, William Hewlet and Jake Scarberry met.

A few days previous Hewlet ordered Scarberry off his premises. Tuesday at the meeting Hewlet asked why he received such treatment. Scarberry replied: "For the treatment I received."

Instantly a knife was drawn by Hewlet. Scarberry pulled a razor. Hewlet received several cuts across the abdomen, and Scarberry was cut in the head and shoulder. They stopped fighting only when they were exhausted. Fatal results is feared for both.

Police Captain Suicides.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—Police Captain Joseph A. Schooley, committed suicide in the city hall by shooting himself in the head.

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.

An Alleged Christ Creating a Serious Disturbance.

EL PASO, Tex., May 12.—According to information received here, a remarkable condition of affairs has existed in the Mexican village of Tomachio, in southwest Chihuahua, 200 miles from Chihuahua. For several months the village has been in open rebellion against the government. The trouble was caused by the appearance in the village some time ago of an old man who proclaimed himself as the true Christ. He impressed himself so thoroughly upon the simple-minded villagers that they abandoned their work to follow the alleged Christ.

Troops were sent by the government to the village with orders to stop the meetings of the followers of the man. The people, however, exhorted by their leader, attacked the soldiers, drove them to the mountains, several being killed in the fight. A detachment of cavalry and infantry have been sent to the place under orders to attack it on all sides, capture the alleged Christ and clean his followers out. They are said to be nearly starved, but stoutly believe in the man.

MEMPHIS CARNIVAL.

Gayly She Celebrates the Opening of the Great Bridge.

MEMPHIS, May 12.—The city is in gala attire in honor of the opening of the new bridge across the Mississippi. The hotels are crowded with visitors from outside points who are here to witness the festivities. These will last three days, commencing this afternoon. Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, will deliver the oration at the opening of the bridge. The warship Concord has arrived, together with a company of light artillerymen from Nashville. The program for the celebration includes an allegorical display of fireworks which it is expected will rival the famous Mardi-Gras of New Orleans.

The "congressional party," including Secretary Elkins, Senators Voorhees, Harris, Butler, Jones, and Representatives John Allen, Storer and others, coming to attend the bridge celebration, arrived in the city at 9:20 yesterday morning. They were met at the depot by a committee and escorted to the Gayoso hotel.

CONGRESS.

Proceedings of Both Branches of the National Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The senate occupied itself up to 2 o'clock yesterday in taking from the calendar and passing a number of bills of no great general interest, and passed the rest of the day in executive session over the French extradition treaty.

The house devoted all of the session to a further consideration of the sundry civil bill. The general debate was closed and nearly the whole session occupied by a discussion of the motion of Mr. Holman, chairman of the committee on appropriations, to strike out the paragraph appropriating $300,000 for the purchase of a site for the proposed new mint at Philadelphia. This was finally agreed to—yeas 95, nays 93. Mr. Bingham gave notice that in the house he would ask the yeas and nays on the motion.

NEW GRADE OF LETTER CARRIERS.

An Important Bill Introduced in the United States Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Senator Sawyer yesterday introduced a bill, prepared at the postoffice department, creating a new grade of letter carriers, to receive $1,200 per annum, and empowering the postmaster general to appoint from the carrier force a district superintendent to every division numbering not less than fifty nor more than one hundred carriers, whose duty is to superintend the collection and delivery of mail matter within his district.

The bill provides that all promotions of letter carriers shall be made upon ascertained fitness and efficiency under regulations to be prescribed by the postmaster general. An appropriation of $250,000 is carried by the bill to make its provisions effective.

GOVERNMENT CROP BULLETIN.

Wheat Outlook Improved, but Corn Not So Favorable.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The monthly crop bulletin issued from the agricultural department says this of the growing wheat crop:

For May the condition is the average, being 84 per cent. against 84 1-2 per cent. last month. The weather has been too cold for rapid growth, yet the crop has improved perceptibly. The change in the central wheat region is from 71 to 75 in Ohio, 78 to 85 in Indiana.

As to the corn outlook, the report says: The proportion of spring plowing usually done on the 1st of May is a little above three-fourths for the whole country, or 76 per cent. as reported. Season cold and unfavorable for rapid progress. Altogether, the country over, this spring is late.

Steamer Launched at Wilmington, Del.

WILMINGTON, May 12.—The steamer A. L. Foster was launched by the Harlan & Hollingsworth company yesterday for the A. L. Foster Steamboat company of New York. She is 213 feet on the water line—about 220 feet over, thirty-two feet beam and over fifteen feet depth of hold, and is a twin screw propeller with 1,250 horse power and calculated to make eighteen miles an hour. Her estimated cost when finished is $150,000. She leaves for New York June 30, and will be used to take excursionists to the fishing banks.

Levee Breaks.

NEW ORLEANS, May 12.—At 11 o'clock yesterday a large break occurred at Waterloo in Point Coupee, on the west bank, six miles below Bayou Sara, and it is said to be a serious one. The river here registered sixteen feet eight-tenths above low water mark.

BAKER SUICIDES.

Two or Three Reasons Why He Did the Rash Act.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., May 12.—A suicide was brought to light yesterday which was feared Tuesday night. Ernest Mueller, aged about fifty, a well known baker and liquor dealer of this city, was found at 9:30 a. m., sitting against a stump, dead. A bullet hole in his temple and a revolver lying in his lap told the story. Two or three circumstances are alleged as the cause. In February, 1889, he and one of his bakers, a German, quarreled, and that night the baker was burned to death in the garret, over the bake oven. This seems to have preyed upon Mueller's mind.

About three months ago his eldest daughter, married, and, it is alleged, Mueller did not approve the union. Tuesday the daughter returned to pay her parents a visit. Late in the evening Mueller put on his Odd Fellow badge, got his revolver, which he had purchased a week ago, presumably for the purpose of killing himself, and went over the river above the dam and did not return. Yesterday morning search was made, with the above result. He had accumulated considerable property and was among the most prosperous business men of the city.

Suits Dismissed.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 12.—As a result of the decision by the supreme court Tuesday, the bank tax commissioners suits in the United States and criminal courts were dismissed yesterday by agreement of all the attorneys employed in the cases who were in the city yesterday. Judge Baker, of the federal court, discharged V. T. Malott from custody. There will probably be no further steps taken to have bankers exhibit the accounts of their depositors until the next legislature meets. The remedy pointed out by Judge Elliott, in his supplementary opinion yesterday, will doubtless in the end be utilized.

Will Go to Africa.

FRANKLIN, Ind., May 12.—Miss Alice Palmer, well known over the state as state organizer of the W. C. T. U., whose home is in this city, has decided to leave this week for New York, from which point she will sail for London. From that place she will be sent by the London union to South Africa to assist in organizing Women's Christian Temperance unions among the women of that country. This is almost an untried field, and the London union is said to be much interested in the success of the venture.

The Time Up.

PITTSBURG, May 12.—The conductors, brakemen and telegraph operators of the Pittsburgh and Western railroad presented grievances to the officials of that company on Jan. 1, asking for an advance in wages of about 10 per cent. or more. The time for an answer from the company expires today. It can not be learned if the company will grant the advance or if the men will strike if the company refuse to grant their demands.

Scared Out by Fire.

BOSTON, May 12.—Fire in the building, corner Washington and States, owned by F. M. Prince & Company, about 1 o'clock this morning, caused damage estimated at $10,000. The offices of the New England Association Press are in the building and for a time considerable excitement prevailed among the boys who hurried out. The fire was soon gotten under control.

People's Party in Nebraska.

OMAHA, May 12.—The national committee of the People's party held a meeting here yesterday. The local committee reported that the necessary amount to entertain the convention had been raised. It was announced that the banks and railroads had refused to subscribe to the fund because the platform of the People's party is inimical to their interests.

Boiler Makers Strike.

VALPARAISO, Ind., May 12.—One hundred and twenty-five men employed in the boiler department of the Standard oil works at Whiting went out on a strike yesterday, and they refused to return to work until a new schedule of wages is agreed upon. They demand ten hours' pay for nine hours' work. The company will fill their positions with new men.

Monument to Johnstown's Unknown Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—The Johnstown flood commission held its first meeting Tuesday. The total amount disbursed by the commission amounted to $2,966,384. The monument to the "unknown dead," to be erected in Grand View cemetery, Johnstown, will be dedicated May 31, the anniversary of the great disaster.

Preparing for Memorial Day.

MARION, Ind., May 12.—Great preparations are making for the observance of Decoration Day, on the 30th inst. Memorial services will be held at the soldiers' home in the morning, and in the I. O. O. F. cemetery in the afternoon. Governor Chase will attend, and the music and martial honors will be unusually elaborate.

Had Too Much Trouble.

LIBERTY, Ind., May 12.—James A. Farlow, one of the wealthiest farmers in this part of the state, is insane and will be taken to the Richmond hospital as soon as possible. La grippe, the death of his wife, and a slander suit that is pending, are the causes of his trouble.

Too Much Rain.

BEDFORD, Ind., May 12.—It has been raining almost constantly here for the past week and the creeks and White river are swollen to unusual size. The farmers are greatly hindered, and they have been compelled to suspend work until more favorable weather.

METHODISTS' WORK.

Proceedings of the Conference at Omaha.

A CENTENNIAL OBSERVANCE.

May 17 Will Be Celebrated by a Special Service—Looking After Lost Journals. The Discipline to Be Revised—The Church North and South Trying to Unite.

OMAHA, May 12.—Bishop Joyce occupied the presiding officer's chair in the Methodist Episcopal general conference yesterday. The devotional services were conducted by Rev. F. B. Sheppard, of the New York conference. The rules were suspended to hear a report from the committee on the centennial of the general conference of the Methodist church.

The report recommended that a special service be held on the evening of May 17 as a centennial service. The report also recommended that efforts be made to collect the facts connected with the conference of 1792, as the official journal of that conference was lost. The report was adopted.

Dr. Kynett moved that a committee be appointed to meet the delegation to the Presbyterian general assembly who passed through Omaha on the way to Portland, Or., and invite them to visit the general conference. Carried.

Dr. E. J. Gray, of Pennsylvania, introduced a resolution to change the rule so as to give the different boards authority to elect the official editors, secretaries of the auxiliary department, superintendents of the book concern and other officers usually elected by the general conference. He supported the resolution in a very practical speech, in which he said as most of the candidates were unknown to a majority of the delegates he thought that the various boards could elect these officers with more intelligence and satisfaction to all concerned. Referred to committee on temporal economy.

Dr. Gray also introduced a resolution calling upon the committee on episcopacy to consider the advisability of restricting the whole territory of the church into as many districts as there are effective bishops, and to assign to each bishop except the senior bishop a prescribed district for the term of four years, instead of leaving the bishops to divide the work as they do at present. The resolution suggested that the senior bishop be left without a district, to preside at the bishops' meetings and to superintend the entire work. Referred to the committee on episcopacy.

Dr. W. F. Warren, of Boston, introduced a resolution to have a capable committee appointed to revise the opening chapter of the discipline, which treats of the origin and history of the church. The paper was referred to the committee on revision of the discipline and Dr. Warren was added to the committee.

At a meeting of the episcopacy committee of the general conference held yesterday afternoon, a sub-committee brought in a resolution to the effect that though before the expiration of the next quadrennial some bishops would probably be unable to perform their duties, yet that the election of more bishops at this conference was not necessary. No action on this part of the report was taken further than the mere acceptance of it. The second part of the report recommends that Episcopal residences be established in Europe, Asia at Seattle, Wash., and at Detroit. It also recommended that the present residences at Topeka, Cincinnati, Buffalo and Fort Worth be abolished. All the bishops were heard on this proposition and all agreed that such action would be to the detriment of the church. Several members of the sub-committee professed to have been converted by the remarks of the bishops and withdrew the recommendation.

The lay delegates, through John Field, of Philadelphia, presented a memorial asking that equal representation in conference.

A resolution asking for seven bishops, five ministers and five laymen be appointed to attend the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church south, and lay before it the action of this general conference, which believes that the interests of the church will be increased by the uniting of the church north and south, was referred to a special committee.

The resolution was offered by the colored delegates repudiating rumors that the colored people are trying to effect a separation and organize a church of their own. The resolution was referred to a committee. The report of the constitutional commission was then taken up and a protracted debate followed respecting the constitutional status of lay delegates. Discussion of the report was pending when the conference adjourned until tomorrow.

Died of Pneumonia.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Mrs. A. R. Spofford, wife of the librarian of congress, died here early Wednesday morning of pneumonia, after a week's illness. She was a native of Massachusetts, but has lived here since 1863. Mrs. Spofford leaves a husband and three children, one of whom is at the famous water cure, Kreuznach, Germany.

The Protective System.

"Suppose we have a community consisting of glass manufacturers, mine owners and farmers," says John Dewitt Warner in the New York World. "The farmers hoe their own row, asking odds of nobody, but the glass manufacturers and mine owners demand a bonus of $50 a year each. How, on the protection plan, will they get it? It would be too barefaced a steal to levy a tax on the farmer alone. They will not do that. They will avoid the appearance of unjust discrimination by putting a tax on all consumers of glass and coal; they will make all purchasers of glass and coal contribute alike $100 each—to the protection fund. "Very fair this looks. Every man is taxed $100 a year! $50 to foster the glass trade and $50 to foster the coal trade. But mark the singular result:

"The mine owner pays in $100; the glass manufacturer pays in $100; the farmer pays in $100. Every man is taxed alike! Total revenue $300.

"But now for the division. The mine owner receives $150, the glass manufacturer receives $150, the farmer—nothing. "Marvellous financiering! All are taxed alike! Yet the glass manufacturer and the mine owner are ahead $50 each, while the farmer—! His industry is not fostered! But who is it that pays for protection?

"The distribution on the basis of the division of the working population of the country would be:

| | |
|--|---------------|
| Agriculture, 44 per cent..... | $440,000,000 |
| Other unprotected industries, 33 per cent..... | 330,000,000 |
| Protected industries, 23 per cent..... | 230,000,000 |

Total.....$1,000,000,000
"The farmer carries nearly half the whole load and gets nothing for it.

"Take the relative amount of capital invested as a measure of distribution, which it would be if the profits of agriculture were as great as those of manufacture. The census 1880 reports:

| | |
|------------------------------|------------------|
| Invested in agriculture..... | $10,500,000,000 |
| Invested in manufacture..... | 2,800,000,000 |

"The shares on this basis would be (the portion of other classes remaining as before):

| | |
|------------------------|---------------|
| The manufacturers..... | $140,000,000 |
| The farmers..... | 520,000,000 |

"For every dollar paid in by the manufacturers the farmer pays in four dollars. And then the manufacturers take the pool! This is the protective system."

HENRY WATTERSON has fired another broadside at the Cleveland boom, but all his talk doesn't seem to have affected the boom in any way.

THE Cleveland boom is too deeprooted to be turned down now by Henry Waterson, John R. McLean or Charles A. Dana, or by all of that crowd combined.

WHEN Cleveland's name was mentioned in the Connecticut State convention, the delegates filled the air with their hats and the enthusiasm was unbounded. His name is about the only one that has aroused much enthusiasm in a Democratic convention this year.

BROTHER KELLAR, of the Carlisle Mercury, says "the people have gone mad over this man," meaning Cleveland, and will demand his nomination. Mr. Waterson remarks: "Nobody knows the force of the Cleveland sentiment more than I do." And yet both of these editors think it is to the interest of the party to nominate some one else.

THE Cincinnati Post has won a great victory over General Hickenlooper and the crowd of light monopolists who have had their grip on the people of the Queen City for years. Had it not been for the determined fight the Post made, the Edison Electric Light Company would never have been awarded the contract it now holds. It looks very much like nearly all the other papers of the Queen City were the paid tools of the monopolists during the agitation of the question.

ONE Kentucky Republican postmaster—Mulholland, of Paducah—has been convicted of thievery and is now in disgrace, and three others—Huffman, of Canmer, Flannery, of Alphoretta, and Price, of Pikeville—are in custody on serious charges. A certain Maysville minister in a private conversation not long since remarked that most all of the fools are to be found in the Democratic party and most all of the knaves in the Republican ranks, or words to that effect. It begins to look like he had sized up the situation correctly as far as the knaves are concerned.

THE candidates for Sheriff in Madison County have signed a written agreement not to use money in their canvass, under a forfeit of $1,000. There are eight candidates and they say the best man ought to win.

THE earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio for the month of April were $605,057.57, a decrease of $5,349.45 as compared with those of the corresponding month last year. The Elizabethtown, Lexington and Big Sandy earnings for the same period were $52,102.96, a decrease of $1,677.12.

MRS. WILLETT, of Muir, Fayette County, returned home this morning, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles White, and her sister, Miss Bessie T. White, who will spend several weeks with her. Mr. White was stricken with paralysis some time ago, and is still very feeble, although there has been some improvement of late.

A DECISION of the Supreme Court makes ineligible to act as Presidential Elector any person holding any position of honor, trust or emolument under either National or State government, and so far does this decision extend that National Bank Directors and officers, and even persons holding State commissions as Notaries Public are prohibited from serving as Electors.

JOHN GEIGER, of Chicago, has sued Court Valley Lodge, No. 169, of the I. O. O. F. of that city, for $25,000 damages, claiming that while being initiated the officers of the lodge compelled him to jump into a supposed lake of fire to show his courage. He says that instead of getting a plunge in the lake, he was landed on the floor, and broke his leg in three places.

CONGRESSMAN PAYNTER succeeded in having the River and Harbor bill amended so that it provides for a survey of the Big Sandy river from its mouth to the point where the Chesapeake and Ohio bridge crosses. The survey is to be made with the view of confining the water of the river to the general course of the channel, and to prevent the formation of a bar on the Ohio river where the Big Sandy empties into it.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal says: "Concerning the law which is to close barber shops on Sundays there exists a difference of opinion. Very slight inquiry develops the fact that it has the hearty support of the journeymen barbers. The master barbers are not agreed, standing nearly half for and half against the bill, but it is alleged that the majority of the proprietors of the largest shops favor the enactment and enforcement of the law."

REV. DR. SCUDDER, of Carlisle, reports a fine meeting of twelve days continuance which he held in Pine Bluff, Ark., says the Mercury. Besides the addition of thirty-seven to the roll of the church, two-thirds of whom were heads of families, the people gave assurance of building a commodious brick house of worship in the near future. This is the fourth meeting Dr. Scudder has held there in the past eight years, and during that time Pine Bluff has grown from 4,000 to a population of 12,000.

THE Chesapeake and Ohio is contemplating a departure in the way of their Old Point Comfort excursions. Heretofore their policy has been to cater only to such of the public as had postponed their vacations till the heat of August. They have about decided to run a very low rate excursion on June 1. Should they receive much encouragement upon the initial effort, probably they will establish a series of bi-monthly ones, at a cost sufficiently attractive to permit all lovers of the sea an opportunity to visit the resort.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES ELLIS, of Forest avenue, have a poll parrot that escaped from its cage a few days ago, and gave a young lady who lives near by quite a surprise. Poll is only a year old, and its vocabulary at present is limited to the single word "what." On escaping from its quarters the other day it perched itself in a neighboring tree. The young lady was out walking and called the name of one of her lady friends. "What?" came the response from the tree top. She was surprised and shocked for a minute or so. What was her friend up in that tree for? But the voice did not seem familiar, and she took a closer look among the thick-leaved branches, and found no one there. The matter was soon explained by the discovery of Poll perched high up on a limb among the leaves.

Where is He?

J. W. Wells and wife came here from Tennessee April 22, and stopped at the St. James Hotel. Eight days afterwards Wells left, and his wife has not heard from him since.

She says he had been talking of going to Russell County, Virginia, but thinks he went to Ripley. Any information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received by her. Direct letters to this office. She has applied to the city for help.

HELENA AND MILLWOOD.

Comments of Superintendent Blatterman on the Schools at These Points.

HELENA—DISTRICT NO. 24.
We have here a very good school house, with ample school ground. If there were as large attendance of scholars as this district can furnish, additional room would be necessary, and an assistant teacher.

We found a very nice school here in charge of Miss Mary W. Clay, a young lady of refinement and well educated. Miss Clay has her school well organized, and is quite equal to the management of the school; her calm, even mode of discipline holds her scholars in good order, while they seem to obey not through coercive measures, but through respect and love for their teacher, and this is just the right sort of discipline.

The classes in this school recited in a very satisfactory manner and their attention and general demeanor during the address of the Superintendent were highly commendable. This district has an excellent board of trustees in Dr. Brough, Mr. John Collins and Mr. Rose. The first named has been a trustee since the first opening of this district, and a very faithful one. His colleagues have been likewise faithful and efficient, and manifest much interest in the school. A faithful board of trustees are a most valuable element in conducting our public schools.

MILLWOOD—DISTRICT NO. 23.
We made a call at this school, but it was closed temporarily in consequence of a marriage in the family of the teacher, whereby we must surrender one of our highly esteemed teachers, much to our regret, but much to the joy of the contracting parties; and we have no right to object, but console ourselves in the fact that good teachers make good wives. The hospitable home of Mr. Selden Bramel being very near and inviting, we repaired thither to obtain refreshment for man and horse, and received a most cordial welcome from Mr. and Mrs. Bramel. Mr. Bramel, with Mr. C. C. Cook and Mr. Abner Hord, are the trustees for this district, and Mr. C. P. Degman is the teacher. G. W. BLATTERMAN, Sup't.

Drowned in the Ohio.

Tuesday afternoon Thomas and Robert Standberry and Wm. Kinner started from Dover to Levana in a "johnboat," and when about two-thirds of the way across the river, the youngest Standberry noticed the boat dipping water from the waves of a passing steamer, and becoming frightened he leaped into the river. His brother seeing his danger jumped after him and in doing so upset the boat and threw Kinner out. The latter clung to the boat and was picked up by parties in a skiff from Levana, but the other two were drowned. The unfortunates resided on a farm just below Levana, and the oldest one leaves a wife and three little children.

To Determine a Jew's Sabbath.

VALPARAISO, Ind., May 12.—A suit to decide the status of the Jewish Sabbath, under the Indiana law, has begun in the circuit court at Crown Point. It grows out of the refusal of Charles Pitzler to attach his signature to an assessment sheet on Saturday, which is the recognized Hebrew Sabbath. Suit was instituted in a justice's court, and a return was had against Pitzler, whereupon he appealed to the circuit court. Pitzler declares a purpose of carrying the matter to a court of final resort.

Rejected by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Whitelaw Reid's extradition treaty between France and the United States was rejected by the senate yesterday, in executive session, after severe criticism and defence. The vote while close, did not represent the exact division on the question of ratification, as several Republican senators out of regard to Mr. Reid and to lessen the effect of the adverse action, voted for ratification after it was a certainty that the treaty would be beaten.

BANK TAXATION.

Attorney General Hendrick Holds it Must Be in Accordance With Old Law This Year.

Attorney General Hendrick has rendered an important opinion on the question of bank taxation for this year, in response to an inquiry from R. C. Ford, Cashier of the First National Bank at London, Laurel County. The Attorney General says:

"Section 171 of the Constitution provides that taxes: 'Shall be uniform upon all property subject to taxation within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax; and all taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws.' Section 174 is in these words: 'All property, whether owned by natural persons or corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, unless exempted by this Constitution; and all corporate property shall pay the same rate of taxation paid by individual property.' There can be no possible doubt but that it was the intention of the framers of the Constitution by these sections to place banks and all other corporations on a common level with individuals for purposes of taxation. The only question is, are these provisions operative as to taxes from banks for the year 1892? The schedule provides: 'The provisions of all laws which are inconsistent with this Constitution shall cease upon its adoption, except that all laws which are inconsistent with such provisions as require legislation to enforce them shall remain in force until such legislation is had, but not longer than six years after the adoption of this Constitution, unless sooner amended or repealed by the General Assembly.'

"That the present provisions of the law for the payment of taxes from banks are inconsistent with the provisions of the Constitution herein cited is clear. I am also equally clear in the opinion that, in view of all the machinery provided by existing laws for the collection of taxes from banks that these provisions of the Constitution do not 'require legislation to enforce them.'

"But the banks have not been assessed for taxation for the year 1892. The Constitution went into effect on the 28th day of September, 1891. The law then in force required that all property should be assessed as of the 15th day of September in each year. The Constitution, although the supreme law of the land, can not more than any other law be retroactive. All authorities agree that a valid assessment is a necessary prerequisite to legal taxation. The banks could not under any law then existing have been assessed on September 15, 1891, for taxation as 'individual property' was assessed.

"If they were, not assessed for State, county or municipal taxes for 1892 no taxes can be collected of them for the year 1892, except under the provisions of the revenue law as it existed on the 15th day of September, 1891.

"I, therefore, conclude that bank taxes for 1892 should be collected as heretofore, but that they should be assessed for taxation as of the 15th of September, 1892, for taxes of the next fiscal year, as in cases of 'individual property.'"

"BLUE SHOVEL" MORRIS, whose arrest was mentioned a few days ago, and who was turned over to the Aberdeen authorities, is in jail at Georgetown in default of $200 bail. Before he was taken to Georgetown, he made a confession of several robberies he had committed, and that he had a box of stolen goods buried in his coal shed. A search of the shed proved the truth of this statement, and a large box was unearthed, containing a lot of tools, quite a number of pieces of jewelry, and other articles of less value. Morris' prospects for a term at Columbus are excellent.

ENGINEERS' MEETING

Twenty-Eighth International Convention

IN SESSION AT ATLANTA, GA.

Nearly One Thousand Delegates Assembled at Georgia's Capital—After the First Day's Session the Meetings Will Be Secret—Rapid Growth of the Order.

ATLANTA, May 12.—The twenty-eighth grand international convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers opened at De Givie's opera house yesterday afternoon. Four hundred and ninety delegates to the Brotherhood and 280 delegates to the grand international female auxiliary are in attendance. The delegates were welcomed to Georgia in a speech by Governor Northern, and to Atlanta by Mayor Hemphill.

The program, interspersed with music, closed with prayer by Rev. J. W. Lee. The annual address was delivered by Chief P. M. Arthur. Other addresses were made by Hon. John Goodwin, Hon. John Temple Graves and Mr. Hoke Smith, and Colonel J. W. Thomas, president of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway. After today the meetings of the brotherhood and the ladies' auxiliary will be clothed in secrecy. They will be held in the capitol.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was organized in Michigan in 1863 with twelve members. In 1864 a call was formulated and 200 members were present. P. M. Arthur, the incumbent, was elected chief in 1864. Since then the order has increased, until it numbers 409 subdivisions, with a membership of 30,000. This covers every railroad in every state and territory in the United States, as well as a large portion of the British provinces and Mexico.

The grand international auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, composed entirely of ladies, was organized in Chicago Oct. 21, 1887, with ten charter members. The object of the auxiliary order is to promote fraternal love and sociability in the families of its members and to render aid in time of need. A fund has been set aside for the purpose of building a home for the orphan children of deceased members of the brotherhood. The officers of the society are: President, Mrs. W. A. Murdock, Chicago, who has been elected three times; vice president, Mrs. Mary E. Cassell, of Columbus, O.; secretary, Mrs. Harry St. Clair, Logansport, Ind.; treasurer, Mrs. George Brown, Detroit.

Mrs. Robert Marr, of Peoria, Ill., general secretary and treasurer of the auxiliary insurance association, has been connected with the auxiliary from its organization. The grand officers of the brotherhood are as follows: P. M. Arthur, chief engineer; A. B. Youngson, assistant chief engineer; P. S. Ingraham, first engineer; H. C. Hays, second engineer; D. Everett, third engineer; A. Kennedy, first assistant engineer; W. B. Huskey, second assistant engineer; J. D. Collins, third assistant engineer.

Trainmen Strike at Johnstown, Pennsylvania—Other Strikes.

JOHNSTOWN, May 12.—Yesterday five trainmen employed in the Cambria Iron company's yards asked for an advance of wages for the members of their organizations. When this request was made they were asked by General Manager Price if they held allegiance to their organization, and when they avowed that they did they were promptly discharged without explanation. The committee claims to represent a large proportion of the company's trainmen, who number about 150. They belong to the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

Their officials were promptly notified by wire of the trouble and one of them representing the conductors arrived last night while the others are expected this afternoon. In the meantime the men here are very determined, and say the organization will, without doubt, approve of their action. If the Cambria company refuses to yield, a prolonged struggle will begin that will involve many more than the workmen in the mills at this place.

The Cambria mills are the only large works in the country in which organized labor is completely shut out.

ROSLYN MINE DISASTER.

Forty-Three Killed and Fourteen Bodies Recovered.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 12.—A special from Roslyn to the Tacoma News says: General Manager Kangley, of the Northern Pacific Coal company, states that there were possibly forty-three men killed in the terrible mine disaster, and of this number fourteen bodies have been recovered. All the men were working with naked lamps.

The supposition is that one of the men struck a sudden outburst of gas and caused the explosion. It is claimed the mine was in the best possible condition as far as ventilation was concerned, and no one attaches any blame to the officials of the company.

Mayor Miller, of Roslyn, has already begun the work of caring for the families of the killed miners.

Deep Water Convention.

MEMPHIS, May 12.—The deep water convention was called to order yesterday by Judge Latham, who delivered an address of welcome to the delegates. Governor Buchanan, of Tennessee, responded. Among the prominent delegates are Senators Voorhees, Butler and Harris and Governor Eagle, of Arkansas. The object of the convention is to secure deep water as far as Memphis in order that ocean steamers may arrive and depart from this wharf at any season of the year.

Under the Wheels.

MAUDS, O., May 12.—Thomas Wilson, in attempting to board a moving engine, was struck by it and seriously injured.

THE LEEWARD ISLANDS.

France Trades Great Britain the New Hebrides for Them.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—The brig Galileo has arrived from Tahiti with considerable news. The principal item is the uprising of the natives of Leeward islands, growing out of the change from an independent native government to French rule. The French war vessels, the Durand, Pourvoyeur and Duchafant, were sent to the scene of the trouble. One of the passengers who came upon the Galileo gave an account of the uprising.

"The whole trouble," he said, "came about through trying to change or annul the treaty of 1847 between France and England by which the three Leeward islands were allowed to be independent of the native government. Now a big change has been inaugurated. France has given over to the English government the islands of New Hebrides for a penal colony, and in exchange the Leeward islands were to be put under French government. The change is a beneficial one for the natives, but they have for so long enjoyed full independence that they hate to feel the restriction that any flag puts upon them."

"On the islands of Huahins and Borabora the natives at first rebelled, but later on gave in to the government when informed by the British consul at Tahiti that such a change was authorized. The natives on Raitea, however, resisted. They armed themselves and prepared for a fight. The entire population on the island numbers about 1,000. To quell this disturbance three French war vessels were sent to Raitea. Peaceable means were to be used if possible to gain the settlement of the troubles. No further information reached Tahiti previous to the sailing of the Galileo."

"The first earthquake in forty years was experienced on March 13, and occasioned considerable comment. Some of the Pomoto group of islands are to be closed against diving for or taking by other means pearl shells or meat which is used for food and shells as articles of commerce. The shells are becoming scarce, and this is the season for the stoppage of the fisheries."

LABOR TROUBLES.

A Strike in New York Assuming Serious Aspects.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The strike of street pavers and ramblers is assuming a much more serious aspect than at first seemed likely to develop. The men will not handle any supplies coming from the quarries of any of the firms in the combination, and as long as they hold out no work will be done in New York or Brooklyn.

Work was to have begun on three new contracts in this city yesterday, but the men were ordered out and quit at once.

Word has been received from Troy, N. Y., from the pavers' union, that none of the materials coming from the quarries of the combination will be handled, either in Troy or Albany.

The Marlborough Granite company, of New Hampshire, has announced to its employees that it is anxious to resume work, and that it will break the combination and sign the regular scale of wages. The men have agreed to return to work at once. The same word comes from the men employed at the Clark Island Granite company's quarry. It is thought that the quarry owners will yield to the men by next Saturday. The owners, however, have threatened that unless the men yield they will close down the quarries and throw 20,000 men out of employment.

Ex-Boozers' Reunion.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 12.—More than a hundred graduates of the Keeley institutes held a reunion here Tuesday for the purpose of organizing a state organization of graduates of institutions in this state. Before the meeting proper, a parade was had to a cold water banquet. It was led by Chief of Police Bogert. In the evening a public meeting was held in Lafayette hall, and speeches were made by many graduates. Resolutions were passed denouncing the statements in the newspapers relative to the health-endangering ingredients of the cure and extolling its merits.

Wind and Water.

COLLIERSVILLE, Tenn., May 12.—A terrific tornado passed two miles northwest of this place yesterday at noon, doing great damage to houses, livestock and fences. The storm first struck the farm of J. P. Cartwright, blowing away several outhouses and destroying a large amount of timber. The farm of Chester Biggs, colored, was next visited. Biggs and family had just finished dinner when his house was completely demolished. Biggs was severely injured.

Gunboat Launched.

BATH, Me., May 12.—About 5,000 persons witnessed the launching Wednesday of the United States gunboat cruiser No. 6, named the Castine, at the Bath iron works. The vessel was gaily decorated with bunting, and made a very satisfactory launch. Miss Hichborn, daughter of Naval Constructor Hichborn, performed the christening ceremony, and in the launching party were many of the society of Bath, Brunswick, and other towns.

Not Heard from Rome.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Archbishop Corrigan has not received an official communication from Rome regarding the Faribault school plan. He expects the decision will arrive within the next ten days. Until that time he is unable to say whether the question has been settled beyond dispute.

Appointed by Abraham Lincoln.

LIMA, O., May 12.—E. J. Wonnell, who was appointed postmaster at South Warsaw, this county, under Abraham Lincoln, has resigned and J. F. Kerr has been appointed in his place. Mr. Wonnell has tried to resign several times, but the people of that section were so well pleased with him that they always protested against it.

Not a Cloudburst.

CLEVELAND, May 12.—The report of a cloudburst at Bedford proves to have been exaggerated. Heavy rains have swollen the creeks in that vicinity, but no particular damage has been done.
